

6

Facts about Flying

Flying remains the safest way to travel. Since 1995, deaths involved with airplanes have steadily decreased thanks to increased safety measures and regulations.

Fatalities by Airline

You are 95% more likely to die by poisoning

95%

1 out of 4

If you suffer from a medical event, there is a 1 in four chance there is a doctor on board your flight

95%

If you do end up going down, you have a 95% chance of surviving

Safety Tactics Work - Be sure to follow the emergency instructions provided by the crew

96% Percent of Boeing Airplanes have secondary engines for backup

96%

Source

LaBianca, J. (2021, July 27). 6 facts about flying that will help you stay calm on your next flight. Reader's Digest. Retrieved November 5, 2021, from <https://www.rd.com/list/flying-facts/>.

https://github.com/Mjohn41823/Tableau_Dashboard_AirplaneData